

Commissioner Justin York

Commissioner York was born in Orlando and raised in Seminole County. He graduated from Seminole High School's International Baccalaureate magnet program in 2006. He holds a bachelor's degree in history and political science from the University of Central Florida (2010) and a Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Fredric G. Levin College of Law (2013). He has been a practicing attorney in Central Florida since 2013.

Commissioner York is active in the community serving or having served on boards with Seminole County Public Schools, the Florida League of Cities, and the Seminole County Prayer Breakfast. He and his wife, Jennifer, have one daughter, Claire, and two retrievers, Bonnie and Bella.

Commissioner Justin York was elected to the Lake Mary City Commission in 2019. Prior to his election, he served as a member of the Planning & Zoning Board for 5 years. He also served on the Board of District Supervisors for the Seminole Soil and Water Conservation District for 3 years, including board Chairman in 2018.

Public Service

City Commission - 2019-Present

Planning & Zoning Board - 2014-2019

Degrees

Bachelor's degree in History and Political Science - University of Central Florida

Juris Doctor - University of Florida Fredric G. Levin College of Law

Memberships/Achievements

Seminole County Public Schools - board member

Florida League of Cities - board member

Seminole County Prayer Breakfast - board member

Seminole Soil and Water Conservation District - Board of District Supervisors for 3 years, Board Chairman in 2018